

Yuyao Liu

PhD Student, Department of Sociology
The University of Hong Kong

Liu Yuyao is a full-time Ph.D. student at HKU Sociology. She received her bachelor's degree from the Faculty of Business and Economics at HKU, double majoring in Economics and Finance, and her master's degree from the Faculty of Social Sciences at HKU. Her current research interests include international migration, machine learning, and urban economics. Now she is focusing on skilled international migration in global innovation hubs.